

Statement of Health Insurance Availability

The Statement of Health Insurance Availability Form is required before the final hearing in a divorce. It documents the current health insurance status of the parties to the divorce and any dependants and the related policy information.

Download the Statement of Health Insurance Availability Form