

Inventory and Appraisement Form

The Inventory and Appraisement Form is used during a divorce to document and appraise all of the assets and liabilities for which the parties to the divorce are responsible. While not required, most divorces make use of the form as a basis for dividing up the marital holdings.

Download the Inventory and Appraisement Form